

8th ICAC Symposium

Building innovative governance to fight corruption

Giuseppe Busia

President of the Italian National Anti-Corruption Authority - ANAC

Charting a New Path to Fight Corruption

A new way of fighting corruption

A new way of fighting corruption requires an integrated approach that combines technology, institutional reform, education, international cooperation and citizen participation.

Creating an ecosystem

It's about creating an ecosystem where corruption is not only undesirable and unacceptable, but also difficult to commit.

Sustainable International Cooperation for a Shared Future

Key Principles

- 1. Equity and Justice
- 2. Shared Responsibility
- 3. Long-term Commitment
- 4. Transparency and Accountability
- 5. Inclusivity

Fighting corruption through innovative governance

- We must strive to make public governance increasingly innovative by completing the process of digitalisation,
- and explore the opportunities and challenges associated with the use of artificial intelligence to strengthen anti-corruption and public integrity.

Digitalisation

Digital transformation to bring together efficiency and anti-corruption

Evidence and experience

Transparency

Accountability

Efficiency

Big Data

Challenges of digitalisation

Human rights

Ensuring the protection of human rights in the digital era

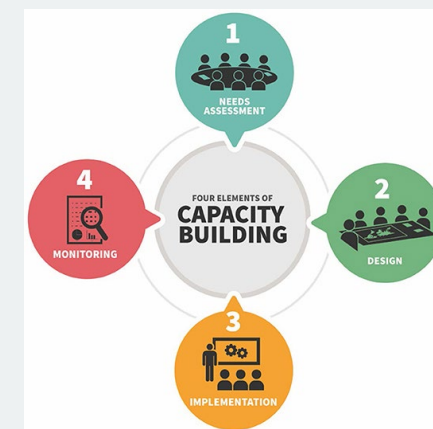

Digital inclusion

Ensuring digital inclusion for all, including the most vulnerable

Security

Promoting trust and security in the digital environment

Capacity-building

Strengthening digital capacity-building

Artificial intelligence as an anti-corruption tool: Use these technologies, not to be used by them

Possible uses of AI

- Public procurement
- Pattern detection
- Human resources
- Database integration
- Transparency in decision-making
- Analysis of legislative texts

Challenges

- ❖ AI Ethical issues
- ❖ Resistance to change
- ❖ AI skills gap
- ❖ Lack of technological infrastructure
- ❖ Bias in AI
- ❖ AI Transparency

Building trust and Working together
are the real Keys

The future is now

Thank you